"Learned."

These are Democrats at large in the streets of Chicago who assert that the political clubs in South Carolina are not armed, and that the story of their being armed is a Republican lie. Is it? In describing the scene at Sumter, when O'Gorman, the Republican speaker, told the Democrats that he would not submit to their dictation, the correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier (Hampton's organ) says: "In less time than it has taken to read this line, fully 500 rifles and pistols were directed upward and at him, or at the crowd of negroes in his vicinity. A bag of ten-penny nails was rammed hastily into the mouth of the canon, which was quickly turned and primed, and in another breath the long-expected fight would have begun." Five hundred rifles and pistols and one cannon turned on one man! No; the Democrats were not armed.—Inter-Ocean.

A Great Estate.

To illustrate the grand scale on which some of the English estates are laid out, I may mention that the Chatsworth estate of the Duke of Devonshire contains 2,000 acres, which he retains for his private park and flower garden, besides thousands more that are rented for farming. His park is bounded on all sides by hills, which cut it off from the rest of the world, and no other house than his own can be seen from the windows of his grand mansion. His flower garden alone comprises 102 acres, wherein sixty laborers are constantly employed to keep it in order. The remainder of the 2,000 acres is all in grass and woodland, and stocked with deer. A forester has charge of the estate, and the understanding with him is that he shall have at his disposal all the produce from the deer—venison, pelts, horns, etc.—on condition that he shall keep at least 2,000 head constantly in the herd.—London Letter.

Another California Wonder.

From the Sacramento Record-Union. The champion long-necked man resides at Sacramento. His owner was at breakfast yesterday, when a friend seated at the opposite side of the table, knowing him to be a little near-sighted, remarked: "There's a fly on the end of your nose." "Is there?" responded the owner of the horn of plenty. "I didn't know it. Just please scare him off; you're nearer to him than I am!"

It is not "more money" that the country needs, but the devising of ways and means by which the abundance of money now in the country may be brought into active circulation among the people. We know of no way in which this can be done, except that which comes from a restoration of confidence on the part of the holders of the money. By keeping up an agitation on the money question, threatening to disturb values and to perpetuate uncertainty and instability in trade and finance, is the most effectual plan that could possibly be devised for preventing that restoration of confidence. Hence it is that the political Greenbackers and their Democratic allies are really the chief obstacle now in the way of a speedy return of better times. Nothing can be more evident than that, and every citizen who countenances the Greenbackers' movement, or who shall vote with them, becomes an obstructionist and an enemy of the people's and the nation's prosperity.—Chicago Journal.

Though shaking like an Aspen Leaf With the chills and fays, the victim of malaria, may still recover by using the celebrated specific, Howett's Stomach Balsam, which not only breaks up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the patient far more thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect whiteness and invigorating action upon the entire system. Testimony is concurrent, positive and ample showing the decided nature of its effects; but this is no mere palliative. Physicians concur in its excellence, and there is a constant influx of communications from persons in every class of society avouching its merits, and bearing witness to its superiority over other remedies for malarial disease. It is especially popular throughout the West, wherever fever and ague prevail, as it does in many of the febrile and most pestiferous portions of that vast region.

Stoic Chairs and Seats, all colors, at Ashby's, for parlor or porch. They make a splendid seat for the cemetery, as the rain does not hurt them; it drains off from every part. —Chicago Daily Tribune.

GEN. HARRISON at the Tabernacle Saturday afternoon.

Col. Somes and W. C. Jones spoke to a good audience at Niantic last night, and go to Argenta this evening.

Come out and hear Scroggs and Matthews at the court house to-morrow evening. The Champaign Glee Club will furnish choice music during the evening.

The glee club from Champaign, which is to sing at the Republican meeting to-morrow night, is one of the best in the state. It consists of four excellent singers, whose voices are well harmonized, and their songs will add much to the interest of the occasion.

The Republican party is in favor of inflating the currency by resuming specie payments. The greenbacks, when redeemed, will not be retired or destroyed, while the circulating medium will be increased by the paying out of the gold and silver now in the treasury.

MALDEN JONES, we fear, will not be able to accept our invitation to speak in Decatur before the close of the campaign. We are extremely sorry, for our people are very anxious to see and hear the author of the Jones platform—the greatest curiosity in current political literature.

BRIGHT AS A PIX.—The Springfield Journal comes to us to-day in an entire new dress, and its proprietors are to be congratulated upon its handsome appearance, as well as upon other noticeable improvements. The Journal is one of the institutions of Illinois, and we wish it every success.

At Ottawa last night the Republicans had a very interesting meeting—the largest one held there this year. M.
W. Matthews, Esq., of Urbana, J. A.
Brown, Esq., of this city, and Sheriff Forstmyer, addressed the audience, which listened with the closest attention for the entire three hours of the meeting.
The same gentlemen will speak at Macon to-night, where they will doubtless have a crowded house. Mr. Matthews is a forcible speaker, who pleases his audience while he instructs them at the same time. His visit to Macon county cannot fail to result in good.

"SHERIFF FORSTMYER runs a free table at the jail," says Mr. Ward's personal organ. It is true that Mr.
Forstmyer has fed more people gratis-sionally during his residence here than any other man in Decatur. For years he has been known as the friend of the poor, and his generosity has assisted the needy whenever they have applied to him. If Mr. Ward's organ is honest in its criticism of the sheriff's free table it is probably because it knows that no such accusation could be made to stick as against its candidate. If that is not what it means we are at a loss to understand the animus of its ill-natured fling.

The Committee on the Bill of Rights in the California Constitutional Convention have adopted the following: "Section 17. Foreign-born persons eligible to become citizens of the United States under the naturalization laws thereof, while here, shall have the same rights in the possessions, enjoyment, and inheritance of property as native-born citizens." The Committee on Chinese considered a proposition by Nelson prohibiting the employment of Mongolians on public buildings, and unanimously adopted.

The Decatur Commercial says:
"Photos has exhibited Jones and Jones and uncolored Photos and next Tuesday the people will exhibit them both."

American Industrial Democrats have been out. They are native, therefore native. Augustus Gwinnett, of New York, has made a speech against the soft-money dealers.

PERSONS AND THINGS.

The St. Louis belle's song to Samson:
"You need not cipher me." Maybe it is Palma, the nephew, who is engaged to the St. Louis belle.
Barus is kicking the golden sands of California into his driver's face.
Mr. Tilden still remains silent, and does not explain his alleged explanatory letter.

New York will wake up and find it self carried off by burglars some of these mornings.

It is believed that if Queen Victoria should die, Sam Tilden would use the Atlantic cable in endeavoring to hoist himself on the British throne.

There is a lady living in Monmouth, Ill., who was once engaged to Eva Butler, and came near marrying him. This was many, many years ago, but she still shudders when she thinks of her close call.

A year ago last winter Judge David Davis was elected United States Senator with great ado in Springfield, Ill. Today no one says a word about him, except to remark how big he is, and guess on his weight.

A Chicago investor has a gigantic scheme for harnessing the tides of the sea into generating sufficient electricity to furnish the entire country light, heat and motive power. To test the idea would cost only about $2,000,000,000.

Mrs. Richard Evans, a very old woman living in Virginia, has a cat that has seen 41 summers. It probably would have seen the winter, also, but for the habit of shutting its eyes and sleeping the time away on the mat in front of the fire.

California wine manufacturers, according to the San Francisco Chronicle, are indignant because Eastern journals have published pictures of Chinamen and others stamping the juice out of the grapes. And it is mean. The Eastern journals should have kept still about it.

THE SIX POINTS.

The Republican faith is well and thoroughly expressed and arranged in the following six points by ex-Vice President Colfax, in his late speech at South Bend. Post them up for reference.

1. Statutes of limitation against any more war claims on the treasury. As has been said by another "Millions for Southern charity, but not a dollar for rebel claims."

2. Protection by the general government against the wild-cat banks that, by breaking, need to rob laboring men anually of more millions than all the interest paid on bonds held by the government for security of National bank note holders.

3. Maintenance of the national faith as the right arm of the national power, because through it national armies and navies are equipped in the hour of the national peril.

4. No legislation that will demonetize or drive out of circulation gold or silver —now, after so many years, in circulation among us as currency.

5. The largest possible paper circulation that can be maintained at equal purchasing power with coin, and convertible into coin at the will of the holder.

6. Adequate protection for all citizens who owe allegiance to the nation, to the uttermost limits of the national constitution and its amendments.

THEN AND NOW.

In 1864 the greenback dollar would buy two yards of calico. Now it will buy sixteen. In 1864 the working man's $1.50 for a day's work would buy three yards of calico for his wife. Now his $1 a day will buy her sixteen.

In 1864 it took the laborer, working at $1.50 a day, twenty-two and one-half days to earn enough to buy a harel of pork. Now if he gets $1 a day, he can buy a barrel in eight or nine days.

In 1864 the price of a day's labor—$1.50—was equal to that of three yards of brown muslin. Now the price of a day's labor—$1—is equal to that of twelve and one-half yards of brown muslin.

In 1864 a day's labor at $1.50 would buy one gallon of molasses. Now a day's labor at $1 will buy two and one-half gallons.—ledo Blade.

"TICKING PILLS."

"I was a GREAT SUFFERER from ticking fits, the Nocking at times was almost intolerable, particularly at night, when undressing, or after getting warm in bed. I tried prescriptions almost innumerable without finding any permanent relief, until I used 'Wayne's Allied Ointment,' which has made a perfect cure."—Joseph W. Clark, firm of Hoad & Clark, shoe and stock house, 84 North Second street, Philadelphia. Reader, if you are suffering from this distressing complaint, or any other, crusty skin disease, tetter, &c., use "Wayne's Ointment" and be cured. Fifty cents a box. Address letters to Dr. SWARTZ & CO., Philadelphia. All leading druggists sell it. Dr. Wayne's Medicine has a worldwide reputation.

A Prosperous State

The Springfield Journal says: "The State will pay $225,000 of the principal of its debt on the 1st of next January. This amount comprises nearly one-third of the balance of indebtedness outstanding, and is all that can at present be offset in. The payment will be made with the Illinois Central Railroad fund."

MAJOR JOHN HOPFMAN, our candidate for Sheriff, made a little speech at Evenson the other evening, deducing his position on general principles.— "The Democrats say we were the bloody shirt," he said. "Well, what of it? Who was ever and the shirt was ours—weren't they?" Honest John brought down the house. He made a hit.—Chicago Journal.

JESSE'S MONEY.

Jesse Harper invariably starts off his speeches by asserting that this country was the first to adopt green money, and instances the greenback in evidence. If this greenback is fiat money then we are all fisticats; but Jesse overlooks the fact that the greenback is not money, only a promise to pay dollars—gold or silver dollars; and hence falls short of being fiat money.

The money Jesse advocates before he closes his speech is made in this fashion: Take a piece of paper, print a vignette of Washington on the left, an Indian on the right, the Lord's prayer near the left side, the ten commandments near the right side, the sermon on the mount on the back, and across the face, "This is a dollar," or ten dollars, or a hundred as the case might be.

It is believed that if Queen Victoria
himself on the British throne.

There is a lady living in Monmouth,
Ill., who was once engaged to Eva But-
call.

A year ago last winter Judge David
with great ado in Springfield, Ill. To-
on his weight.

would cost only about $2,000,000,000.

Mrs. Richard Evans, a very old woman
the time away on the mat in front of the fire.

California wine manufacturers, according to the San Francisco Chronicle,
and others stamping the juice out of
Eastern journals should have kept still
about it.

A SECRET CIRCULAR.

We are informed that a secret circular has been printed at the Times office, in this city, for distribution on the morning of the election. It has already been sent to surrounding counties, to be read in readiness for that day.

The import of the circular can only be conjectured. It contains either an announcement that Jesse Harper has withdrawn in favor of Maiden Jones, or a lot of filth to be emptied upon Mr.
Cannon. If the former, it will be expected to aid in securing votes for Jones; if the latter, it matters little who the votes are transferred to, so they are got away from Cannon. Republican voters are too intelligent and have too much sense to be influenced from voting the straight ticket by lies sprung on the morning of election. Beware of all circulars which emanate from demo-

The feeling here is well-informed political circles is one of growing confidence in the success of the Republicans next Tuesday. It is considered certain that they will elect their state ticket, and carry both branches of the legislature. The Republicans of Sangamon county, especially, are confident, notwithstanding the majority against them of electing both their candidates to the lower house.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., October 30.—At 11 o'clock the members of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, presided over by music, left their hotels for the Metropolitan Theatre, which has been profusely decorated with flags, evergreens and floral pieces, with the names of prominent officers and battles of this army suspended about the hall. While the audience were being seated the band played a medley of patriotic airs, after which General Sherman called the meeting to order, saying that the proceedings of the day will be entirely of a business character, to which, however, the presence of the public is cordially welcome, the appointment of committees and the reading of reports.

Among the letters received and read was one from General Grant, in which he notifies General Sherman that he has given up his trip around the world after a short run into Africa he will return to Paris, where he will remain until his departure for home. General Grant's name was received with prolonged applause.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30.—The Virginia Republicans think now that a mistake has been made in not nominating Republican candidates in some of the Congressional districts where the Democratic majorities seemed to be overwhelming. The dissensions in the Democratic ranks in several districts are so great that shrewd politicians are led to believe that if the Republicans had made nominations, instead of supporting independent Democratic candidates, they would stand a fair chance of carrying one or two Democratic districts.

Mr. Wendell Phillips left his office to see the cause of the disturbance. He expressed his disgust that the Mayor did not order out the regiment to suppress the mob. Colonel Park, who was with him, replied: "You fool; don't you see the regiment is already out?" And Mr. Phillips said: "On looking about me, sure enough there were the men who should have been, and usually were law-abiding citizens on every side of me." Things have somewhat changed in the forty three years which have intervened.

o'clock to-day occurred the sale of the Political and Other Notes.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The Star of the evening published the following by authority, in regard to the lawlessness still being practiced in South Carolina:
"The Republic's aversion to the using of the military in any State to preserve peace and order is well known. If, however, an exigency should arise, the President, there is good ground for believing, would call on the military to see that justice is all done, that no one is interfered with, no matter what his color or how he may wish to cast his vote. Emboldened by the success with which they have been disregarding the internal revenue laws, the South Carolina bulldozers have had the audacity to invoke the clemency of Attorney-General Devens for violation of the election laws. General Devens to-day sent the following telegram to District-Attorney Northrop: 'I want no trafficking of guarantees, but a judicial investigation of all outrages alleged to have been committed upon offending people in the exercise of their rights as citizens of the United States.' It is rumored that Northrop will be removed, as his incompetency tends to encourage violations of law, offenders knowing that they will not be prosecuted."

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS
THEY ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD
READ WHAT HE SAYS:

Dr. Trott—Dear Sir: For two years I have been a visitor to Paris by a sudden vision of levitation, but sure that the vision aforesaid has come straight across the Atlantic. Now our girls at home are prettier than pinks and peaches, but once let them come to Paris and let their natural taste in dress receive the finishing touches of Parisian style and the result is—well, it is just bewildering. And it is really amazing, if sometimes a little annoying, to note the satisfaction that one of our "radiant damsels" will create in any place of public resort. A lady friend of mine, with her husband, took a little American beauty to that quiet and strictly moral theater, Opera Comique, a few nights ago. The young lady was quietly though stylishly dressed and was a perfectly well-bred and modest-mannered girl, but when the party went out to promenade in the foyer between the acts; as is the custom here, the people literally walked round and round the charming little American, gazing at her in open-eyed admiration and admiration. Yet she was simply a very pretty little blonde, with a complexion whose cream and roses were none of their luster to pearl-powder or paint.

CONSTIPATION.

Only by regularity of the bowel can perfect health be enjoyed. DR. TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one should take every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily dose is obtained.
